The Star Meadow Dragonfly Horsemanship Award will be presented yearly to the junior or amateur rider who most exhibits the following traits. They will be someone who personally commits to the time and effort needed to care for their horse in a thoughtful and respectful manner. They demonstrate patience and persistence when things aren't easy while at the same time remaining humble and open minded. They are aware and attentive to the horse's body language and general well-being and prove daily that the needs of their horse are superior to the excitement of winning a ribbon. These are traits that were required of any rider worthy of the original Star Meadow Dragonfly.

Mr. Pony, as he was lovingly referred to, was discovered as a 7-year-old project pony and was quickly molded into a forever pony. From up down lessons to 3-foot pony hunters, he went on to teach many riders what horsemanship is truly about. This award is given in loving memory of Star Meadow Dragonfly by Elizabeth Saunders, who feels so grateful to have plucked this pony out of the pasture many years ago.

Please turn in by Saturday morning at 10:00 am.

Nomination forms can be found at the hospitality tent, online or use your own paper, but be sure to include the following:
